FATAL ACCIDENT.

Freight Train Runs Over Boy Near Gallup.

Charley Dobbins, Youthful Son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dobbins, Meets Death in Horrible Manner.

About eight o'clock on Saturday morning last an extra freight train going east ran over a boy a short distance above Gallup, nine miles south of Louisa, producing such injuries that death resulted a few hours later.

The boy was Charles Dobbins, 12 years old, and son of Mr. and Mrs. John Dobbins, who live near Gallup. The lad was accompanied by another boy, Henry Young, a stepson of Hiram Hurley, who lives near Torchlight, two or three miles below the place where the accident occurred. This boy made the occurrence known and help was rendered as speedily as possible. A hand-car was procured and sent to Torchlight for Dr. F. D. Marcum, the mine physician at that place. The doctor very soon reached the injured boy, but a glance sufficed to show him that death was inevitable. The right leg was severed an inch or two below the knee; the left leg was ground to a pulp and cut off at the hip, the wheels having gone into the bowels, crushing everything into a bleeding mass.

Every possible thing was done to make the lad as comfortable as possible. Stimulants were given, and under their use the boy rallied somewhat and talked a little about the accident, but he never recovered from the shock and died late in the afternoon. The burial occurred on Sunday and was largely attended by friends and relatives. The shocking and untimely death of the boy has prostrated the family and is keenly felt throughout the entire neighborhood.

Concerning the cause of the unfortunate accident more than one story has been told, but the facts are probably told by the boy, Young. He says that Charley Dobbins and he were on one side of the track when the freight train passed on its way east, and that Dobbins grabbed a stirrup on the car and was drawn under the wheels. Young, of course, does not know whether his unfortunate companion intended to "hop" the train for a ride or not. It is said that boys of all sizes and ages living along the C. & O. railway jump on all sorts of trains at any and every opportunity. Such being the case the wonder is, not that an occasional accident is the result, but that fatalities do not happen every day.

The sad accident of last Saturday should serve as a warning to all who have this reckless habit, not only at Torchlight but elsewhere. There are boys in Louisa, notably two or three of tender years, who, so it is said, "hop" every train that comes their way, not waiting always for the trains to come their way, but will go out of their way to get a chance to imperil their lives. A good sized piece of barrel stave properly applied to the proper place, might do much to lessen the frequency of such violators of law.

A Distinguished Visitor.

Judge W. H. Holt, a former Chief Justice of the Kentucky Court of Appeals, and now a prominent member of the Jefferson county bar, was in Louisa this week on professional business. Shortly after the Spanish American war Judge Holt was made United States Judge for the island of Porto Rico, serving in that capacity quite a while. Many years ago Judge and Mrs. Holt were guests of Col. Northrup of this city.

A Timber Tide.

Big Sandy developed a timber tide last week and a very large run was made. The logs were of fine quality and commanded a big price. Most of the timber was from above the "Breaks."

Will Locate in Indiana.

Mr. E. S. Dickey, who for the past five years has been foreman of this paper, has severed his connection with the NEWS and will soon go to Indiana where he will embark in a different business.

During the time he has been in the employ of the editor Mr. Dickey has been faithful and watchful of the interests of his employer. He knows the mechanical part of the printing and publishing of a paper from the ground up. He is an excellent job printer, displaying good taste, skill and ability in the designing and construction of job work of every description.

Mr. Dickey's habits and character are excellent, above suspicion and beyond reproach. He is industrious to a degree, temperate to the point of total abstinence, and scrupulously honest. His long stay in the NEWS office is unmarked by the slightest unpleasant or untoward incident. He is popular with the citizens of Louisa, and these share with the editorial staff and employees of the NEWS their regret at his departure, and hope that Mr. and Mrs. Dickey may find it pleasant and profitable wherever they may go.

Will Develop 500 Acres.

The Beaver Pond Coal Co., of Prestonsburg, recently incorporated with a capital stock of $20,000, will develop 500 acres of coal land and install electric mining equipment for a daily capacity of 750 tons. Officers of the company are James H. Spradlin, president; B. P. Friend, treasurer, and C. Yancey Ligon, secretary and general manager.

ELDORADO DRAMATIC CLUB

Of Louisa Plays to a Crowded House Three Consecutive Nights.

The Eldorado Dramatic Club of Louisa deserves nothing but words of kindness and approbation for their eminently successful efforts to please and amuse their friends by their recent presentation of "The Girl From L-Triangle Ranch." The play is a rather difficult melodrama to put upon even the best arranged and equipped city stage. It abounds in exciting "situations"—times when a slight misdeed would turn a tragic episode or a pathetic scene into a burlesque or a farce. But these young men and maidens of the club, new to the footlights and strangers to the "business" of the stage, undertook and carried to a successful conclusion three acts of a play depicting frontier and ranch life—acted their several parts in a manner worthy of professionals.

There were adventures and adventures, fugitives and outlaws, Hebrews and hustlers, ranchmen, cattle thieves and border ruffians, ranch girls and wives pursuing "forgetful" husbands. For a successful delineation of these many and varied characters various gifts were required and furnished. If frank speech and pure grit were demanded, none could have been pluckier or grittier than those who had occasion to display those qualities: if downright cold blooded villainy was called for it was not lacking; the Sheeny and the "butter-in" were certainly very much the Hebrew and the man of push; and the general cut throat look of the cattle thieves and border ruffians made every man in the audience with a nickel in his pocket feel glad that they were only playing robber and not the real thing. Where good looks and shapely figures were expected and shapely figures were there with the goods, and if ever a forgetful husband was beset and pursued by a loving wife he found no let up from pursuit and besetment in the presentation of "The Girl From L-Triangle Ranch."

Proceeding and throughout the play there was some very pretty and pleasing piano music, and between acts some well rendered singing and dancing were introduced.

The L-Triangle Girl must have struck a popular chord, for breaking all previous records of a Louisa amateur performance, the play was given three consecutive nights, of course omitting Sunday, and each was to a crowded house.

Miss Opal Spencer was pianist and singer, and Will Cain sang and John Wade danced very acceptably. In order that you may know who the performers were and what characters they assumed we give the programme.

Cast of Characters.

Harry Logan, a young adventurer and new sheriff of the county, Junior Lackey, Harvey Wesley, a fugitive from justice and leader of border outlaws, Ed Spencer, Tom Claxton, his associate, Jack Banfield, Solomon Donahue, a wandering Hebrew in search of "Mazuma," John Wade, Caleb Push, a hustler and addicted to "butting in" at times, J. Con Berry, Eclipse, a colored ranchman, John Vaughan, Carl Ficklesimer, Wilkins, Romero, Bradley, Fred Remmele, Cattle thieves and border outlaws, Franklin Barton, Owner of the L-Triangle Ranch, Ira See, Ethel Barton, the girl from the ranch, Etta Blankenship, Bolivar, a young lady "reared" on L-Triangle Ranch, Eula Hartman, Nathalie, an adventuress and queen of cattle thieves, Dollie Peters, Mrs. Caleb Push, a loving wife pursuing a forgetful husband, Gertrude Hatcher.

Who's Got The Money?

At the request of several County Superintendents throughout the State, who have been trying to get interest-bearing warrants issued for the money which has been due from the State for several months, the Attorney General has decided that the school teachers did not belong to the favored class, and that the school funds can not be paid in interest-bearing warrants. But the money due the teachers has been used illegally for other purposes. It has been pilfered from the school fund where it belonged. It went to make up the sum of $189,000 which Gov. Willson paid for "My Soldiers," used just as the soldiers were, without warrant of law. And yet the party of "Great Moral Ideas" will ask the teachers and the taxpayers to vote for and endorse them in their lawlessness. —Flemingsburg Times-Democrat.

Row On a Train.

The NEWS is informed that a very disgraceful row occurred on No. 38 last Tuesday night. The train had stopped at Georges Creek to make a slight repair when a man named Horn, said to be from Middle Creek, Floyd county, entered a coach where there were several women and children, and with a pistol in one hand and a knife in the other drove the frightened passengers out of the car. The women screamed and children cried, all very much excited. Horn was drunk and kept the passengers out of the coach until some one who knew him persuaded him to leave the car and go elsewhere. The conductor tried to quiet him but he would listen to no one.

Announcement.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Diamond, formerly of Louisa but now residents of Lamar, Mo., announce the engagement of their eldest daughter, Florence Pearl, to Mr. Glenn E. Baker, of Illinois. The wedding will occur in the coming June.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Diamond, the foregoing tells its own delightful story. The wonder is that a similar one has not been told before. The young men of Missouri seem to have a nicer appreciation of feminine attractiveness than the young men of Lawrence and Louisa have.

Bride Has Relatives Here.

Miss Emma M. Stewart and Hiram W. Clark, of San Bernardino, Cal., were recently married near that city. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Albert Stewart, formerly of Boyd county. They went to California some years ago. Mr. Stewart was a brother of the late Judge James E. Stewart, of Louisa.

CIRCUIT COURT.

Good Juries Impaneled and Put to Work.

The Term Will Probably Consume the Entire Time of Three Weeks Allotted to It.

The spring term of the Lawrence Circuit Court began on Monday last, Judge J. B. Hannah presiding, and John M. Waugh, Commonwealth's Attorney, at his place of prosecution. Court was opened in due form and the machinery of the legal mill was speedily set agoing. The first work, that of impaneling the grand jury—the Big Dozen, the Board of Inquisition—occupied but a short time.

These constitute the panel: D. W. Skaggs, Cox Carter, Andrew Skaggs, Wesley Jordan, W. H. Lambert, Hardin Sparks, U. Fitzpatrick, M. A. Hay, T. S. McClure, Frank Allen, Kinley Caldwell, E. G. Griffith. Cox Carter was appointed foreman.

The selection of the two petit juries to serve during the term followed the forming of the grand jury. The following citizens and householders were chosen:

No. 1—Taylor Billups, J. H. Hillman, Hiram Dixon, Robt. Calnes, G. H. Carroll, Albert Ratcliff, D. M. Currutte, M. V. Berry, Mat Elam, Addison Ball, J. M. Evans, J. Z. Stump.

No. 2—M. J. Allen, A. T. Wilbur, S. D. Williams, T. T. Thompson, J. J. Daniel, Linzy Webb, Minard Baker, Wm. Sturgell, Daniel Skaggs, W. H. C. Thompson, H. H. Cassidy, B. F. Carter.

The court has been quite busy so far, and a great many commonwealth cases have been disposed of. Judge Hannah does not make a lounging seat of the bench, and his pushing, insistent way does much toward the transaction of the business of the docket. During the first three days of the term no felony cases were tried.

At the hour of going to press the time of the court was occupied by the trial of misdemeanor and no felony cases had been called.

The grand jury had made several partial reports, including in them about sixty indictments. This body will be in session all the week and possibly part of next.

The most important case on the criminal docket, that of the Commonwealth against Dr. F. D. Marcum, charged with the murder of John Whittaker on a C. & O. train on the 27th of September, 1908, was set for trial on Thursday. Witnesses and counsel for both sides are present but the NEWS has no information regarding a trial or a continuance.

757 Indictments in Boyd.

The grand jury of Boyd county adjourned last Saturday afternoon, having returned 757 indictments, this breaking the record of any former sitting of a grand jury in Boyd county. It is said that over 500 of the indictments are against soft drink vendors at Ashland, who are said to have sold intoxicants since that city voted "dry" over a year ago. Under a recent ordinance by the Ashland City Council that city is now dry as Sahara, and the saloon men of this city are reaping a great harvest, all the rest of the county being dry territory.

Moonshine Still Destroyed.

Horn, Ky., April 18.—A large moonshine still on the head of Rockhouse Creek, in Eastern Kentucky was destroyed Monday. Ten gallons of beer were destroyed. So far no one has been captured but at the time the still was cut the "shiners" fired upon the revenue men from trees. Immediately the officers began firing, and the combat lasted about thirty minutes. No one was injured.

This still has heretofore caused the officers many a fruitless hunt and sleepless night.

Hospital in Kentucky Mountains.

At a meeting of the deaconesses at the Deaconess Home Mrs. Pierce, the Superintendent, who has just returned from the mountains in Kentucky, gave a report of the work being done by a deaconess who was educated for the work at the Cincinnati school, and who is now converting the district 250 miles down in Kentucky, in the midst of the Cumberland Mountains. Within the incredibly short time of two years Miss Dora Bridges, the deaconess, has erected a hospital, the first in that territory, and has accumulated sufficient funds to build a church.

Arrangements were also made to send Miss M. More, one of the nurses from Christ Hospital, Cincinnati, to the hospital in Elkhorn City when Miss Bridges takes up the church work. Miss Lottie Sennett has been selected to represent the Deaconess Home at the Kindergarten Convention in St. Louis.—Cincinnati Enquirer.

Boy Accidentally Killed.

James Ison, the 11-year-old son of former Jailer "Bony" Ison, accidentally shot and killed his playmate, the 4-year-old son of Alfred Fields, at Kingdom Come, below Whitesburg, in Letcher county. The Ison boy, who was just inside the house at home, picked up a shotgun and began to carelessly handle it. At length the weapon was discharged, the entire contents taking effect in the Fields boy's face, killing him almost instantly.

The Isons have relatives in the western part of this county.

MRS. MORRIS MCCLURE

Dies After a Brief Illness at Her Home in Central City, W. Va.

On last Thursday afternoon Mrs. Mellicie McClure, wife of Morris McClure, of Central City, W. Va., died after a brief illness caused by puerperal peritonitis. On the following day the body was brought to Louisa and on Saturday it was interred in Pine Hill cemetery. Previous to the burial funeral services were held in the M. E. Church South, conducted by the Rev. I. N. Fannin, of Central City.

At this service, which was largely attended, the infant daughter of the deceased was baptized and given the name of its dead mother—Mellicie Elizabeth. It is the only surviving child, and is about five or six weeks old.

The body of Mrs. McClure was accompanied from Central City by her husband, her mother, Mrs. McClure, her brother, Labe, and her sister, Emma.

Mrs. McClure was born in Louisa thirty-eight years ago. She was a daughter of the late Fred McIlenny and passed most of her life in this city. Her untimely death was a very sad one and was the cause of much sorrow on part of her relatives and friends. Mrs. McClure was an estimable woman, possessed of many excellent qualities as wife, daughter and sister.

Two Well Known People Married.

On Thursday, April 21, at the residence of the bride's parents, Miss Tennie Prince was married to Mr. Dock Jordan, the Rev. William Copley officiating. The bride is a very attractive and intelligent young woman. She has a fine education and was an able trained nurse. She spent several years in the Southwest as nurse in prominent hospitals and had but recently returned from Colorado.

Mr. Jordan is one of the ablest and best known teachers in Lawrence county. He is a man of much intelligence, of excellent character and habits. It is rumored that he intends to enter mercantile life. He will doubtless succeed if he takes this step, but the teacher's profession will lose an ornament to the calling.

"Higher Up."

It was thought by many that the young men and boys who operated the "Bank of Orr" were directed and influenced by older and experenced heads. They denied this, but the following from Newport, Ky., shows that the supposition was correct:

Newport, Ky., April 22.—Four boys, Will and John Prince, John Price and John Sparks, were taken today to the Government penitentiary at Atlanta, Ga., to serve their sentences for using the mails fraudulently in an alleged banking scheme in which over $3,000 was secured. The oldest is but 18.

The boys petitioned to remain and serve their time in the Newport jail, but Judge Cochran decided that the evidence was of such a nature that this should not be done. They also promised to give the names of men "higher up," but the court said the case had been tried and the conviction was positive.

Tug River Blind Tiger Dynamited.

An alleged blind tiger located on the Kentucky side of the river opposite Lindsay, Mingo county, was blown with dynamite last Friday night by unknown parties. Quite a quantity of booze was destroyed. The force of the explosion was so great that parts of the building were blown across the river.

It is stated that those in charge of the place have been defying the Kentucky authorities, who made several attempts to effect their capture. The railroad contractors and other employers of labor in that section considered the place a nuisance and it is stated that it will be blown up again if booze is sold there.

No one was hurt in the explosion.

Republicans Ousted.

Judge William H. Holt, of Louisville, sitting as Special Judge to try seven contested cases for the county officers of Pike county, wherein the citizens' "hog back" ticket was contesting the election of the regular Republican ticket, which had been declared elected on the face of the returns at the regular November election in 1909, in a written opinion held the election void on the grounds of fraud and bribery and declared all the county officers except the office of Jailer, which was not contested, vacant. The leading attorney for the contestants was E. D. Stevenson, formerly of Greenup county, who has made a reputation in his management of the cases.

Attempt Made to Dynamite Hotel.

An attempt was made Thursday to blow up the hotel run in connection with the pumping station of the Cumberland Pipe Line Company, near Salyersville.

The miscreants tied three sticks of dynamite together, put them under the hotel, placed a cap in one, and in lighting the fuse, which was cut off about three feet away, they jerked the cap from the stick of dynamite and the cap exploded; but failed to explode the dynamite; the cap explosion brought the inhabitants of the hotel, who found the dynamite under the house. There were about a dozen people in the hotel at the time.

Died in Greenup County.

Henry Boggs, formerly of this county, died of pneumonia at Falmerton, Greenup county, on Thursday, April 21. He was attending school when he was taken sick with the disease which resulted in death. He and his father, William Boggs, moved from Lawrence county to Greenup several years ago.

Henry Boggs was highly respected by all who knew him. He was educating himself for the profession of teaching and ranked high as a student. The death of such a young man is a great loss.

Fine Sample of Alfalfa.

W. T. Kane, the modern-method farmer of Fallsburg, brought to the NEWS office this week a fine specimen of alfalfa grown on his place this spring. It was over twenty inches long and very thrifty looking. This was part of the first cutting.

The NEWS takes this opportunity for saying to its farmer friends that it will take pleasure in noticing, giving name and residence of the grower, any fine or unusual sample of farm products raised by them.

The race between Don C. Edwards and Caleb Powers in the Eleventh Kentucky district for the Republican nomination for Representative in Congress has become a hot and bitter one. The latest from the scene of conflict is that Powers is likely to win over Edwards.

Covington, Ky., April 22.—The jury sitting in United States Court here gave judgment for $1,000 to Frank Eckler, who charged that he had been a victim of the Kentucky "night riders" and had been whipped and otherwise abused at the home of James Riddle, in Pendleton county. When the jury reported, after being out two hours, they freed from complicity in the charges James Aulick, John Riddle and Kirby Hamilton, Fred Colvin, Alfred Collier, James Riddle, Charles Jones, Everett Aulick and Jesse Allen are the men who will have to pay the fine.

There is one instance on record where it would have paid a man to be lazy about his work. Frankfort, Ky., April 20.—In an exhaustive opinion, of interest to every person in Kentucky, who holds a State warrant on which interest is being paid, Judge James Breathitt, Attorney General, today holds that warrants of the State are not liable for taxation for city, county or State purposes. He holds that it would not be fair to hold these evidences of debt liable for taxes and that it makes no difference into whose hands the warrants may fall they still are not subject to taxation.

Maysville, Ky., April 25.—The Baptist church of Lewisburg, this county, burned last night. The preacher was in the midst of prayer when some one cried fire. The congregation stampeded and men, women and children were wedged in the doorway trying to escape, the last one getting out as the roof fell in. Several were badly injured, but no one was killed. The loss is about $2,000, with no insurance.

Paris, Ky., April 25.—A dead and dismembered steer in cold storage is a thing to be lightly considered by the callous spectator, but to find a live steer in cold storage, contentedly munching straw after an imprisonment of several days, is, indeed, a decided novelty. That's the unusual sight that greeted Bishop Hibler, when, in searching for a lost steer, he found the animal in an air-tight icehouse or cold storage plant on his farm, near Paris. Five steers had strayed and four were recovered, but the fifth seemed a case of "mysterious disappearance." Then a farm hand recalled having seen the missing steer on the day of its disappearance near the big storage plant, containing several hundred tons of ice, the door of which had been left open and closed again that night. The steer, straying in the open door fell through the opening, but, uninjured, calmly munched straw in a temperature ranging below zero until taken out of its winter quarters.

They are having a "new and wampus" at Winchester over the consular appointments. The Democrat says: "From present indications the taking of the census, which is supposed to begin today, will be something of a farce so far as Winchester and Clark county are concerned. Some of the appointees are notoriously unfit and some of the best ones on the list have declined to act and so far, these vacancies are unfilled. The Commercial Club and the Mayor on Wednesday telegraphed Supervisor Pauley at Pikeville to come here at once and straighten things out."

The charge is made that Congressman Langley has been manipulating the appointments regardless of civil service rules, which are supposed to govern the selection of enumerators.

Covington, Ky., April 20.—The jury in the United States Circuit Court of Eastern Kentucky returned late this afternoon judgment for $6,000 in favor of W. S. Henderson, who sued fourteen Bracken county farmers for $25,000, alleged to be due him as damages on his business. Henderson claimed that the tobacco men went to his store and threatened to throw him into the river and to otherwise deal harshly with him if he did not sign an agreement not to buy any of the 1906 and 1907 pools of tobacco. He signed the agreement and later left Augusta, where he was in business, coming to Cincinnati.

Sinking Spells Every Few Days

"At the time I began taking Dr. Miles' Heart Remedy I was having sinking spells every few days. My hands and feet would get cold; I could scarcely breathe, and could feel myself gradually sinking away until I would be unconscious. Those about me could not tell there was life in me. After these spells I would be very weak and nervous, sleepless and without appetite; had neuralgia in my head and heart. After taking the remedy a short time all this disappeared and in a few weeks all the heart trouble was gone."

A Mother Sent Her Son to the Store for Change

She gave him a ten-dollar bill, and told him to get one five in change—one dollar in small pieces. The merchant gave the boy a five-dollar bill, four ones, a half and two quarters. On the way home the boy lost a quarter. It cost 25 cents to get the $10 bill changed. A checking account would have saved this trouble and loss. Ask us about the advantages of a checking account. We'll cheerfully explain.

Friday, April 29, 1910.

We are authorized to announce
MORDECAI WILLIAMS,
of Boyd county, as a candidate for Congress, Ninth District, subject to the action of the Democratic party.

A special session of the legislature will find several prominent members of the House have disqualified themselves for further services by moving or accepting other offices. There would be a number of vacancies to be filled.

The Court of Appeals of Kentucky, in reversing the election contest from Lexington held incidentally that the purchase of a registration certificate must be considered as exactly the same thing as the purchase of a vote, and is, therefore, a felony, punishable by confinement in the penitentiary.

In a malt mead joint near Beattyville, Saturday night, two men were shot dead, two were mortally wounded, and several other were hurt. As the Court of Appeals has decided that malt mead does not contain enough alcohol to be intoxicating, it would be interesting to know what might have happened had the beverage been spiked.

John O. Nelson, of Cincinnati, has a daughter who has two well-developed heads, he says. She is six years old and is unable to walk or sit up, but her father says, she is as bright as any child he ever saw. The Nelsons do all possible to prevent strangers seeing their child and wrap her up to get her out of doors without attracting attention. The child speaks English and German with equal fluency, using both mouths when she speaks her father says.

It was unnecessary to say that this wonderful child is a girl. If she had a dozen mouths instead of two she would use them all with "equal fluency."

The Republicans of the Tenth Congressional district, at a meeting of the committee held in Mt. Sterling on Saturday last, called a convention to be held at Mt. Sterling on June 3, to nominate a candidate for Congress to succeed John Langley, the present member. Mr. Langley has announced his candidacy for renomination. It is not known whether Mr. Langley will have opposition or not, but there were signs of another candidate at the meeting. There is a considerable split in Republican ranks in the district over some appointments which have been made, and Langley will have a hard fight to be re-elected. The Democrats have not yet called their committee together, but an effort is being made to secure the consent of John M. Stevenson, of Clark county, to run, and if he will do so he will be nominated. He is one of the strongest men in the district.

SUN BROTHERS SHOWS.

Coming to Town For Two Complete Performances.

With the advent of Spring and Summer each year, comes the Merry Tented Show, with its kaleidoscopic review of amazing wonders, the trick elephants, jolly clowns, cute, cunning ponies, wild beasts, beautiful horses, the red lemonade and toy balloon vendors and the thousand and one delights of the great American tented show. With everything new but the name and title, the Sun Brothers' Great Progressive Shows, are underlined to exhibit at LOUISA, KY., on FRIDAY, May 13th.

The show uses all water and sun proof tents, these pavilions are all new and of the latest ornate build. The big tents and the surrounding exhibition grounds are brilliantly lighted with Electro-Calcium generators, which afford the finest light ever used for a similar purpose; it can be truthfully said, that night is turned into day.

Throughout the show is one of the finest equipped in America. Two complete performances are given daily. Matinee and night, at two and eight o'clock.

The "Big Show" programme as arranged for 1910, is peerless in conception and merit. There are over fifty male and female artists in acts of the highest calibre, all gorgeously costumed and skillfully executed. Comprising aerialistic "thrillers," acrobatic and gymnastic displays, bicycle exploits, pantomimic oddities, marvelous educated animals, polite vaudeville specialties, and spectacular novelty ideas. Then there are "Nero" and "Hero," the man-eating lions, the troupe of Military and Comedy elephants, the dancing camels, Prince Tiny, the smallest horse on earth, the baby camel "Macon" and its mother and Princess Hula, the only genuine Hindoo serpent hypnotist with a caravan of huge performing serpents. At 12:30, in the afternoon will be offered entirely free to the public, a series of gala outdoor shows. These free displays are of a sensational and diversified character and must be seen to be appreciated.

REAPING BENEFIT.

From the Experience of Louisa People.

We are fortunate indeed to be able to profit by the experience of our neighbors. The public utterances of Louisa residents on the following subject will interest and benefit thousands of our readers. Read this statement. No better proof can be had.

G. W. Pack, of Louisa, Ky., says: "I was employed on the railroad for about five years and last May while doing some work in a stooped position, I was suddenly taken with a catch across the small of my back. It seemed just as if some one had thrust a knife into me. After that any work that required me to stoop made me miserable. Doan's Kidney Pills were finally recommended to me and getting a supply, I began their use. The contents of one box completely removed my trouble and I am now in good health."

Mr. Pack gave the above statement in January 1908, and on June 21, 1909, he said: "I have never had the least trouble from my back since Doan's Kidney Pills cured me. I always take pleasure in saying a good word for this remedy."

For sale by all dealers. Price 50 cents. Foster-Milburn Co., Buffalo, New York, sole agents for the United States.

Remember the name—Doan's—and take no other.

NEW WASH SUITS.

Beautiful Materials, Correct Styles and Popular Prices.

We take unusual pride in announcing the arrival of our new line of Wash Suits for the spring and summer season. The tendency to purchase garments in preference to materials has been growing for some time and any woman is wise in so doing when she can obtain the kind of garments that this showing represents. While we show a complete line of practically every fabric and conceit that will be popular, those in greatest demand will be the white and natural fabrics of which we have a large selection of excellent styles and values.

PRICES RANGE FROM $5.00 UP.

The first named we believe to be the minimum figure at which a satisfactory garment can be sold and ranging from this price on up will be found the most beautiful of the season's styles in a great variety of new effects and in many weaves and a full range of sizes.

Each price represents its equivalent in actual value; a selection of styles representing the best obtainable; and the range of weaves and effects are sure to please our most discriminating trade.

Early Selections are Preferable

because it gives the purchaser choice of the stock at first hand. The best styles and the most exclusive garments are usually sold at the beginning of the season. There is a great difference in selections that suit our fancy as to style, fit, color, and effect, and in making purchases of what you can obtain after the better numbers are taken and this difference is all in favor of the early purchaser.

Impossible to be Well

It is impossible to be well, simply impossible, if the bowels are constipated. You must pay attention to the laws of nature, or suffer the consequences. Undigested material, waste products, poisonous substances, must be removed from the body at least once each day, or there will be trouble. A sluggish liver is responsible for an immense amount of suffering and serious disease. Ask your doctor about Ayer's Pills. He knows why they act directly on the liver. Trust him. J.C. Big Sandy News

Friday, April 29, 1910.

Judge and Mrs. J. B. Hannah have rooms at Sam Bromley's.

Born, on the 23rd inst., to Labe Wallace and wife, a fine girl—Emily Eugene.

It's early for fireflies and locust blossoms, but they were seen here about the middle of the month.

It's easier to go through the tail of a comet than to go to the good place without taking your county paper.

Bishop Burton and the Rev. Mr. Gibbons were guests of Mr. and Mrs. A. M. Campbell while in this city this week.

A valuable young mare, the property of Col. Northup, fell while being handled the other day and broke her neck.

The advertising car of Sun Brothers' Show was here Thursday, and the walls and fences are gay with pictures of its attractions.

Mr. and Mrs. G. A. Nash are occupying the Freese property, corner of Madison and Water streets. Mr. Freese reserves some of the rooms.

Miss Kit Preston, of Buffalo, Johnson county, has finished her business course at the K. N. C., and returned to her home. She left on Saturday last.

Mrs. W. J. Crutcher, daughter, Lucille, and son Chauncey, are here from West Virginia, the guests of Mrs. Crutcher's sister, Mrs. T. N. Huffman, on College street, Pikeville item.

J. B. Crutcher came down from Louisa on business and while here purchased a fine Jersey cow from Doc Vinson. Dr. Wayne Bromley, of Louisa, also purchased a fine heifer from Mr. Vinson this week.—Catlettsburg Tribune.

Dr. G. W. Wroten the well known physician of Louisa, was here Friday on business. Dr. Wroten is chief surgeon for the Big Sandy Division of the C. & O., a position he has held for twenty years.—Paintsville Herald.

Mrs. Augustus Snyder entertained the Finch Club yesterday. The out-of-town guests were Mrs. J. B. Hannah, of Elliott county, Mrs. James Skene and Miss Ellen Skene, of Huntington, and Misses Vera and Gillie Dunsmore, of West Virginia.

The NEWS has no knowledge concerning the identity of "Blue Eyes," of Salspeter. Blue is not a fast color, and then again eyes get blackened sometimes, so his or her letter to this paper found rest in the basket whose front name is waste.

S. G. Curnutte, the well known contractor of Catlettsburg, suffered a severe injury Thursday. While engaged at work in tearing down a house a brick fell upon his head, inflicting a serious and painful wound. Mr. Curnutte formerly lived in this county.

Jeff McClure, who has been in Arizona several months, has returned. He had reached Kenova, en route to W. mson, where he heard the news of death of his sister-in-law, Mrs. Morris McClure, and came to Louisa for the burial. He is much improved in health.

Miss Ethel Ward, of Paintsville, and Mr. Ran ("Junior") Hinkle, of Richardson, were married in Paintsville on Wednesday, and passed through Louisa that day en route to the East. Mr. Hinkle is a brother of County Attorney James W. Hinkle.

A. J. Garred has returned from West Point, N. Y., where he had gone to see his son, Richard, who is a cadet at the U. S. Military Academy. Richard has been quite sick, but his friends will be glad to learn that he has improved enough to return to studies and duty.

Norfolk & Western Coal Report.

Statistics received by the State Mine Department of West Virginia indicate that coal and coke shipments over the Norfolk & Western Railroad in West Virginia during March amounted to 1,319,084 tons of coal and 246,201 tons of coke. Of the total coal shipments, Pocahontas field supplied 915,326 tons; Tug River field, 159,883 tons; Thacker field, 178,930 tons, and Kenova field, 65,845 tons. The coke shipments were supplied by the Pocahontas field.

Episcopal Services.

The Rt. Rev. L. W. Burton, of the Diocese of Lexington, and the Rev. J. Howell Gibbons, Rector of Calvary Church, Ashland, held service at the M. E. Church, this city, on Monday evening. The sermon preached by the Bishop on this occasion was one of the finest of the many excellent ones delivered by him in Louisa. He is very popular here and is welcomed and attentively listened to by large congregations.

Church Supper.

As announced in church on Sunday last the "Captains" of the various companies of the ladies of the M. E. Church South will serve supper at the residence of John G. Burns Friday night. All the good things offered on such occasions will grace the board, all for the small sum of twenty-five cents. All are invited.

Comet Not Visible to Naked Eye.

The comet is not yet visible to the naked eye. Some enthusiasts have left beds at a very early hour, or staid up all night to see the wanderer and have reported it visible. What they saw, if anything, was the planet Venus. Wait till about May 18 and you can see it in the early evening.

Hiawatha Entertainment.

A dramatic presentation of Longfellow's "Hiawatha" will be given by the Expression department of the K. N. C. on the evening of May 14th, 1910, in the school auditorium. Proceeds for the benefit of the school. Let everybody come.

A more extended notice of the entertainment will be given later.

SPECIAL NOTICE.

On Friday and Saturday, May 6 and 7, the ladies of the Baptist Church will conduct a bazaar in the Burchett building, adjoining the rooms occupied by the Snyder Hardware Co. Delicious refreshments will be served, and many beautiful and useful articles will be for sale.

NOTICE.

We want 25 good tie makers and good teams to log saw mills on Johns Creek. For further information write LABE SIMPSON, Louisa, Ky., or JAMES SIMPSON, Edgar, Floyd Co., Ky. Will pay cash every 30 days.

NOTICE.

The C. & O. Railway has made a rate of $17.65 from Louisa to Washington, D. C., on account of the World's Sunday School Convention. All who are going on the special train which leaves Ashland at midnight of the 17th of May will please notify me as soon as possible, that proper reservations may be made. W. J. VAUGHAN.

Services at Baptist Church.

Sunday School at 9:30 a. m. Preaching each Sunday, 10:45 a. m. and 7:00 p. m. Prayer meeting each Wednesday, 7:00 p. m. All are cordially invited to attend. Franklin Hardin, Pastor

Arthur Preston's Store Robbed.

On Monday night last the general store of Arthur Preston, at Graves Shoals, on the C. & O. railway about 20 miles south of Louisa, was robbed of about twenty-four dollars worth of assorted goods, and the self-confessed robber, a young man named Lambert, is awaiting trial in the Circuit Court.

Mr. Preston was in Louisa at the time the robbery was committed, and the store and postoffice were in charge of one of his daughters. She had distributed the evening mail and had locked up and gone into the house adjoining. Early the next morning the robbery was discovered by some one who saw some goods scattered near the store.

Suspicion was fastened upon Lambert, and search was at once made for him. He was not at home, but his trail led up Nat's Creek and the posse in pursuit overtook him at the head of the creek. He had on a suit and a pair of shoes which were a part of the stolen property. He "fessed up" at once and gave a detailed account of the whole affair. He was in the store, with others, at closing time, but he managed to sneak up stairs before the others left, and at the proper time he quietly gathered up what he wanted and took his departure in the darkness of the night. He was brought to Louisa and lodged in jail and will probably take a trip to Frankfort.

Cautionary Note: Be sure you get this stove—see that the name-plate reads "New Perfection."

New Perfection WICK BLUE FLAME Oil Cook-stove

Gives no outside heat, no smell, no smoke. It will cook the biggest dinner without heating the kitchen or the cook. It is immediately lighted and immediately extinguished. It can be changed from a slow to a quick fire by turning a handle. There's no drudgery connected with it, no coal to carry, no wood to chop. You don't have to wait fifteen or twenty minutes till its fire gets going. Apply a light and it's ready. By simply turning the wick up or down you get a slow or an intense heat on the bottom of the pot, pan, kettle or oven, and nowhere else. It has a Cabinet Top with shelf for keeping plates and food hot, drop shelves for coffee, teapot or saucepan, and even a rack for towels. It saves time, worry, health and temper. It does all a woman needs and more than she expects. Made with 1, 2, and 3 burners; the 2 and 3-burner sizes can be had with or without Cabinet.

NEWS OF THE FARM.

Hints for Stock Owners.

Dock the lambs early that are to be kept in the flock.

The flock should be turned to pasture early, while there is a short bite, but leave them out only a short time at first.

The change from dry feed to pasture should be made very gradually.

Sudden changes cause indigestion and scour.

A run on the rye fields will be good for the sheep and good for the rye.

The difference in the handling of two colts may make several hundreds of dollars difference when they are offered for sale.

Before turning the young horses and colts to pasture, have the teeth of each one examined by a competent veterinary surgeon.

Defective teeth may retard the growth and development of a colt, causing a loss.

Driving on one rein is usually caused by a sharp tooth or teeth.

Don't yank or whip the horse, but find the cause. It may be a sharp tooth or the harness may be ill-fitting.

Some men whip their horses because they are in a bad frame of mind themselves.

Hogs are waste savers. A farm without hogs has many leaks.

The fall litter should come in early September, if possible; therefore the sows should be bred in May.

Do not put any other stock in the pig pasture.

Cattle do not relish eating after pigs, and colts are apt to injure hogs by chasing them.

Look out for creep holes; the little pigs will find them.

Fortify your wire fence by placing boards around the bottom. The tighter these fit to the ground the better.

Swine learn bad habits easily, and are very cute.

The cows should not be driven faster than a walk while on the way to the place of milking or feeding.

Give the calves a clean lock of bright clover or mixed hay every day. You will be surprised how soon they will begin to eat it.

The spring calves should be kept in roomy box stalls the first summer, so they can be protected from the scalding sun and bothering flies.

When the calf is about a month old separator milk can be given with flaxseed jelly added. Begin with about two tablespoonfuls and increase to a cupful.

This is the month when cows go to pasture through a large part of the country. Give them a good start. Keep them in good heart till they have really made the change from hay to grass. It will pay.

Gumption on the Farm.

Be prompt at meals.
Is the mower ready?
Cold wet May—barn full of hay.
Don't slight the corn corn is King.

A field is not fenced when the bars are down.

Don't put away steel tools wet, dry them first, then oil them.

Lift up your eyes occasionally. All good things aren't in the furrows.

If you think nobody cares for you, have a carbuncle on the back of your neck.

The boy smokes cigarettes behind the barn because dad smokes cigars in the open.

Never lead a colt at the end of a long strap. Men have been killed.

In this way.

Cut your clover while it is in the bloom. Dead-ripe clover is just about spoiled so far as feed is concerned.

Wood ashes or lime should not be applied mixed with, or in direct contact with, stable or hen manure.

Don't throw out apples, potatoes or turnips where stock can get them, and choke. Either bury or slice them.

After all it is the producing power of the farm that determines the boy in his going or staying. Show him that there's money in it, and he will stick to the old farm like a sand-bur to a sheep's tail.

Don't let the back step be unsightly with swill pails, cat dishes and hen food, thus screwing food and attracting flies and disease. Cart away all the old cans, broken dishes, old coats and boots, from back places and yards.

On some soils it does not pay to plow too deep. For instance, take it where the plow-point strikes hard pan; no use to pull the horses to death and tire ourselves all out to bring that to the surface. It is not worth while after we have done it.

Here is the most approved method of treating seed potatoes to prevent a scabby crop: Soak the whole seed for two hours in a mixture of one-half pint of formalin (often called formaldehyde) and fifteen gallons of cold water; dry the seed, cut, and plant in ground that has not recently grown potatoes.

Must the horse go? is the anxious query of the Illinois Farmer. To be sure he must go, and the faster the better. Who wants a horse that does not go? In these automobile speed days the faster the horse can go the better we like him, and soon nobody will be satisfied with less than a two-minute clip.

Probably not one farmer in a thousand ever took his mowing machine guards out and ground them on the cutting edge. Look at them and see how dull they are. Some day before haying, when you have time, just take them all out and sharpen them. You have no idea how much better they will work. The machine will cut almost like a new one.

Tarring corn: In coating seed corn with coal-tar as a protection against crows and blackbirds, put the grain into a pail and pour on enough warm water to cover it. Add a teaspoonful of tar to a peck, and stir well. Throw the corn out on a sieve or in a basket to drain, and then stir in a few handfuls of land plaster (gypsum). Do not pour the tar on the dry seed.

Sometimes folks get a good many irons in the fire at the same time in spite of themselves. Jobs come thick and fast, some days. The best way to do, then, is to keep calm and go straight ahead, doing all the little things that lie in one part of the farm when you are in that locality, and then go on to something else. Finish what you have on hand. Time brings all out right to the man who works this way.

—From May Farm Journal.

OBITUARY.

R. L. Thompson, better known as Russ Thompson, was born January 22, 1837, and deceased this life April 13, 1910, aged 72 years, 2 months and 13 days. He was converted about four years ago and was a faithful member of the M. E. Church. He leaves a wife and 13 children—6 boys and 7 girls, and several grandchildren and a host of friends to mourn his death.

He was a Union soldier in the war of 1861. He lived at Kavanaugh at the time of his death and his remains were taken to Mattie, on the right fork of Little Blaine to his old home. The services were held in the M. E. Church, where a large crowd of the kindred and friends assembled, and the Rev. A. H. Miller preached his funeral from the text: "But I would not have you to be ignorant brethren concerning them which are asleep that ye sorrow not even as others which have no hope."

After the services the remains were taken to the old family graveyard and laid to rest to await the resurrection morning. I would say to his bereaved wife and children to weep not for father, but prepare to meet him in the better world, where there will be no more sad farewells.

His death was due to pneumonia. A. H. M.

WEST VIRGINIA NEIGHBORS.

The small pox epidemic in Wayne county is abating, and not much further trouble is anticipated.

The condition of Rev. J. D. Garrett, of Wayne, remains about the same. It is hoped that when the weather gets settled that he will be able to get out.

The Belvard Oil Company will start two strings of tools at work in drilling on their property near East Lynn. Everything points to their efforts as being successful.

It is rumored that the Wayne County Court is contemplating the purchase of the farm of Bostle Brumfield for the purpose of changing the location of the County Farm.

Danville Lodge, I. O. O. F., will turn out on April 26th, and take part in the corner stone laying of the new Baptist church at Madison. A large attendance is expected, as this will be the first occasion of the kind to come off in Boone county.

Having been fed salt of the "off-grade" variety, five mules belonging to the Winifrede Coal Company have died and the death of a number of others is expected. The salt was of the kind used in clearing off snow by the railroad companies and was given to the animals by one of the bosses who did not know that the stuff was poison.

A terrible explosion of a saw-mill boiler occurred on the farm of Marshall Brown, above Madison on Friday morning one of the worst accidents on record in Boone county. Dead, Wyatt Larue, Pennsylvania; injured, Gordon Fitzwater, Milton, probably fatally; R. L. Gibbutt, Boone county, probably fatally; Harry Chandler, Boone county, slightly. Thornton and McDermott, well known Coal river lumbermen, had just erected a new mill and had started operation Friday morning, their first work being to cut hickory rails for the extension of their tram way tracks into the timberland. Although the boiler had been tested previous to the beginning of operation Friday some defect in connection with the arrangements of the steam generating apparatus caused a boiler explosion which completely wrecked the plant. The big boiler was severed in the middle. The half containing the fire box was thrown two hundred feet backward, while the front half was hurled twenty feet, where it lodged against a rock.

Standing in the middle of the Guyandotte bridge last Friday night Rousby Hill, of Lincoln county, dropped his pocket book, containing $120 in gold. It went between the planks of the bridge and sank into ten feet of water. Hill marked the spot on the bridge and went to the hotel to think it over. Next morning he secured the services of Robert E. Lee Fuller, an experienced waterman. The two went to the bridge and dropped a plumb line from the hole through which the pocket book had fallen to the water. Then they went to the line in a boat and Fuller struck a spike pole into the river bottom and then dived to its base. In less than a minute he rose to the surface with the pocket book in his hands. Investigation showed that the six gold pieces were safe. Fuller received one of the gold pieces for his ingenuity and effort and Hill went back to Lincoln county happy.

The school teachers of the state will have to play fair if they want the good will of the State Superintendent M. P. Shawkey. Within the present school year the department of schools has received several complaints of teachers "jumping" their contracts, and the practice must be stopped according to the order just issued. Some teachers who care nothing for their written or spoken word of honor do it in this wise: They take up a school, usually in a rural district and teach about three months. Then they leave that school and go to another where they can teach a full term, thus getting to teach from eight to nine months. The first school is left in the middle of the year without a teacher and oftentimes it is several weeks before one can be secured. Under the law, the teacher should forfeit a month's pay, and this penalty will be enforced. Complaint has also been made that in some instances teachers falsify reports, showing that they have taught more days than they really have. This offense is serious and will not only lead to the revoking of the teacher's certificate, but they are liable to criminal punishment for obtaining money under false report.

W. J. Fields for Congress.

McGlone, Ky.

The time is near at hand for the Democrats of the Ninth Congressional District of Kentucky to select a standard bearer for Democracy's colors in November. A number of men—men of wide influence and high reputations—are spoken of as probable candidates for the nomination.

Aside from personal feelings, a very important duty confronts every loyal Democrat of this district at this particular time and that is the duty of considering thoroughly the question as to who can carry this doubtful district to victory on election day.

Among those spoken of as candidates, interest seems to center on Carter county's choice, W. J. Fields. There are many reasons why we who are acquainted with the situation, believe Mr. Fields to be the most available leader for his party in the coming election.

First, he has always been a loyal and active Democrat. When the fire of the enemy was hottest he was always found in the front ranks enthusiastically defending the cause of Democracy, which we, as Democrats believe to be the cause of a free people.

Second, he comes from the ranks of the "Great Common People." Born and reared under the hand of adversity, he is perfectly familiar with the needs of the masses, and has the natural ability and moral courage to ably and fearlessly represent them in the halls of Congress. His life has been a civic one, and his greatest ambition has been to serve his country in the Science of Government.

Third, he comes before us with a character unimpeachable. Honesty and integrity have been his guides from boyhood. His life is that of a sober, progressive and loyal citizen; ever ready to serve his fellow men, and also an active worker in the cause of Christianity. Democracy's colors will float from a clean hand, if placed in the hands of William J. Fields.

Fourth, having been engaged in business, in most of the counties of the district, for the past ten years, he is personally acquainted with more people than any other candidate who seeks the nomination. This, within itself, is a very important reason why his candidacy should be earnestly considered by every Democrat who wants to see his party win in November.

Mr. Fields carries with him a personality which appeals to the people. Intelligent, jovial, and a splendid talker, he is always able to interest the crowd. As an orator his ability is admirable. Possessing as he does that power of expression which appeals to the reasoning faculties of men, he can ably and skillfully handle the question that comes before him for public discussion. Over that portion of the district where he is known, many Republicans stand pledged to his support if the Democrats give him the nomination. This is due to the fact that the fairness with which he has opposed them in the past, and the upright life he lives before them, command their respect and support.

So as a Democrat who has carefully studied the situation, and who is personally acquainted with many of the men who will appear as candidates before our convention, this year, I appeal to every loyal Democrat to earnestly consider the candidacy of W. J. Fields; believing as I do that he is by far the strongest candidate now before us, and will be strong enough in November to triumphantly lead us to victory, and redeem the Ninth Congressional District of Kentucky from Republican hands. W. B. WHITT.

A Poor Weak Woman

As she is termed, will endure bravely and patiently agonies which a strong man would give way under. The fact is women are more patient than they ought to be under such troubles.

Every woman ought to know that she may obtain the most experienced medical advice free of charge and in absolute confidence and privacy by writing to the World's Dispensary Medical Association, R. V. Pierce, M. D., President, Buffalo, N. Y. Dr. Pierce has been chief consulting physician of the Invalids' Hotel and Surgical Institute, of Buffalo, N. Y., for many years and has had a wider practical experience in the treatment of women's diseases than any other physician in this country. His medicines are world-famous for their astonishing efficacy.

The most perfect remedy ever devised for weak and delicate women is Dr. Pierce's Favorite Prescription.

IT MAKES WEAK WOMEN STRONG.

SICK WOMEN WELL.

The many and varied symptoms of woman's peculiar ailments are fully set forth in Plain English in the People's Medical Adviser (1008 pages), a newly revised and up-to-date Edition of which, cloth-bound, will be mailed free on receipt of 31 one-cent stamps to pay cost of mailing only. HOME CIRCLE COLUMN.

COLUMN DEDICATED TO TIRED MOTHERS AS THEY JOIN THE HOME CIRCLE.

The gleeful laugh of happy children is the best home music, and the graceful figures the best statuary. We are all kings and queens in the cradle and each babe is a new marvel; a new miracle. The unaffected lamentations when he lifts up his voice on high, or more beautiful, the sobbing child—the face all liquid grief, as he tries to swallow his vexation—soften all hearts to pity, and to mirthful and clamorous compassion. The small despot asks so little that all reasons and all nature is on his side. His ignorance is more charming than all knowledge, and his little sins more bewitching than virtue. His flesh is angels flesh all alive.

A Perfect Wife

She is handsome, but it is beauty arising not from features complexion or from shape. She has all three in a high degree, but it is not these she touches a heart; it is all that sweetness of temper, benevolence, innocence and sensibility which a face can express that forms her beauty. She has a face that just raises your attention at first sight; it grows on you every moment and you wonder if it did no more than raise your attention at first. Her eyes have a mild light, but they awe when she pleases; they command like a good man out of office not by authority but by virtue. Her stature is not tall; she is not made to be the admiration of everybody, but the happiness of one. She has all the firmness that does not exclude delicacy—she has all the softness that does not imply weakness. Her voice is a soft, low music, not formed to rule in public assemblies, but to charm those who can distinguish company from a crowd; it has this advantage—you must come close to it to hear it. To describe her body describes her mind—one is the transcript of the other; her understanding is not shown in the variety of matters it exerts itself on, but in the goodness of the choice she makes. She does not display it so much in saying or doing things as in avoiding such as she ought not to say or do. No person of so few years can know the world better; no person was ever less corrupted by the knowledge. Her politeness flows rather from a natural disposition to oblige than from any rules on the subject and therefore never fails to strike those who understand good breeding and those who do not. She has a steady and firm mind which takes no more from the delicacy of the female character than the solidity of marble does from its polish and luster. She has such virtues as make us value the truly great of our own sex. She has all the winning graces that make us love even the faults we see in the weak and beautiful in hers.

Courtesy in the Home.

It is to be regretted that individual courtesy in the household is at so low an ebb. We treat our guests with favor and bestow upon them every mark of polite attention; but the minute they are out of the house we slip back into the old ruts, and treat those about us with an indifference that borders on contempt. Not that this is intentional; rather it is the result of carelessness, a failure to realize that the polite attentions, "the little things," count so much to those we love as to some outsider who becomes a member of a family for a day.

If one would be a successful host one should be a successful parent or brother, or sister, and courtesy is an inevitable requisite in both cases. The home life is a training for the larger life in which we meet other men and discuss other interests. If at home we learn to say "thank you," and mean it we will not forget to say it to others at the proper time.

Mother.

There is one form sacred in memory's gallery, one face which time can never erase. It is that of our mother, the dear, gentle, compassionate mother who loved us ere we knew what love was, and taught us the right ere we knew the wrong. She sang us to sleep in the innocence of childhood, and awoke us with loving kisses on the bright mornings of long ago. Her eyes beamed with joy as she blessed us at life's dawning and spoke a tender farewell, as the life-sun went down. She watched us to school in the summer sun and taught us our lessons by the wintry fireside. From childhood's morn to manhood's hour she was ever at hand to soothe and console and when at last we must go forth from the old home and fireside, how tenderly and affectionately she caressed us and kissed us good-bye—then waited and hoped and prayed that all would be well. From first to last her love was the same—it knew no bounds. With cheers for the right, tears for the wrong, she was happy in our joys, sad in our sorrows and she washed away our errors in the flooded rivulets of the soul. Her conscience was her guide and her family her greatest joy. She loved her home more than glittering fashion and sought honor in the consciousness of doing good.

Mid afflictions, trials and suffering years, she lived for a purpose—that we might succeed. We loved her as we loved no other and pleasant memories cluster around her peaceful grave. She is gone now—the kind heart has ceased its tender murmurings and the voice so full of love and sympathy is hushed in the silence of the winding-sheet, but floating up before us in the infinite vast we see a form radiant with the splendor of noble virtues, pure and spotless as the new-fallen snow. It is facing the throne of the eternal right and as it draws near to that beautiful realm, the glittering luster of Heavenly sheen light up the view and we behold the sacred form of our loved and loving mother—safe at last in the peaceful home of the soul.

NEWS FROM THE ENTERPRISING COUNTY SEAT OF JOHNSON.

It does not all the time pay to go to law with your neighbors. Last week a four dollar judgment rendered in the Johnson Quarterly Court, carried with it more than sixty dollars in costs.

William Craft, one of our oldest citizens, died last week at the home of his son, on Middle Fork. Mr. Craft was past 90 years old, and was one of the first surveyors ever to survey a tract of land in Magoffin county.

H. G. Arnett, of Hendricks, was in town last week. Mr. Arnett is in possession of a "mineral ball" of a liquid chemical composition, used in locating and correctly determining oil and gas, which up to this date has never failed. He says there are only six such balls like this in the United States, and his the only one in Kentucky. He is thoroughly acquainted with the use of the ball, and is an expert in the business of locating oil and gas wells. The ball cost $500 and was procured from a friend of his in Jamestown, N. Y.

The Northern Coal & Coke Company is taking steps to increase its capital stock. A meeting of the stock holders will be held in New York City this week for this purpose and the plan to increase is certain to be adopted. The Northern Coal & Coke Company is one of the strongest coal land owners in the United States. The Northern and its auxiliaries own practically all the coal lands in Pike, Letcher, Harlan, Perry, Knott and Floyd counties, in this state, and a large boundary in Dickinson and other counties in Virginia. It also owns quite a boundary in Johnson county. The Northern was organized by Mr. John C. C. Mayo, of this city, several years ago and the value of its holdings has reached the billion mark. Some of the most prominent capitalists in the United States are connected with the Northern and when the time is right the entire holdings of the Northern will be developed, which means that something will be doing in this section when the work is started.

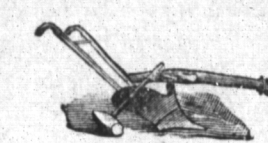

There is revival of the report that the Licking River Lumber Co. will soon arrange to construct a narrow guaged railroad from Stafford station to the Green Fork of Jennies Creek to the large boundary of timber which it purchased three years ago from Dan Davis. It is most certain that a narrow guaged railroad will be constructed as it would not be practical to attempt to remove the timber in any other way. The timber on this boundary is valued at $100,000 and is worth the while of the company in figuring how to get it out. The distance necessary to remove it would make wagon hauling out of the question and the streams of this section are too small to justify an attempt to float it. Agents of the company have been over the ground several times looking out a route for a tram-road but up to the present time have taken no definite action. It is said that some of the citizens living along the proposed route of the tram-way are inclined to want to "pinch" the run and that is giving the company some concern. Others say that an effort will be made to establish a Creek and in the event this can be done a very reasonable price will obtain the right of way.

CADMUS.

Our Sunday Schools are opening up for the good work and we want to write a word to girls.

Girls, you know that you have a wonderful influence over the boys. The better and more refined you are the greater will be the refinement of the boys. The boys naturally like the girls in fact they each and every one are determined to have a girl, and the majority of them a wife some day. The boys will do anything you demand of them in order to have your society; consequently it depends upon you to a certain degree to make the young men of this country what they should be. Put your foot right down on the subject of intemperance, and above all things never permit yourself to become infatuated with a young man that touches drink in any form. Your whole future life and happiness fully depends upon the morals of the man you marry; and if any young man does not love you to the extent that he is willing to be a total abstainer, give him up, and do it quickly. Never marry a man and then try to reform him, expecting to make an ideal husband of him. If you do it will be the mistake of your life.

There is a grand and noble work for you girls to do in this temperance movement, helping to down this curse that is causing the women of this country more misery than all else combined. There are thousands of poor women in this land laboring to support their children all on account of drunken husbands. There are 100,000 drunkards falling into graves of despair every year, and the saloons are making that many more each year to fill their places. This means to the women of the universe that there are 200,000 widows, and orphans made yearly from this curse. Now, be careful that you are not enlisted in this number. The women and children are the greatest sufferers from the influence of the saloon. So commence now and be in the fight against your worst enemy. In your own community there is no doubt temperance work being done. You join every movement possible and offer a helping hand. You may think you can not do much, but you can every one has an influence much greater than they realize. You girls and women are a power for good.

There is not a place in earth or heaven,

There's not a task to mankind given;

There's not a life a death or birth That has any weight or worth Without a woman in it.

Make your aim at the highest type of womanhood pure graceful tender, brilliant and sympathetic. The hand that rocks the cradle is the hand that moves the world.

Now, girls, always be in the fight against the red tongued demon of whiskey, for it is the traffic of death. It has no care for honor; hears no cries of misery, and answers no call for mercy; it defies legislatures, bribes juries, breaks through the flimsy cobwebs of laws, tramps under its cloven hoofs the holy Sabbath and the law of God, grows rich on the hard earned wages of poverty, fattens on the murdered souls of men, and laughs at the broken homes and fallen girls; sneers at the widow's tears, mocks the orphan's cry for bread; it damns the father with its bite; its trail is marked with sickening blight. God bless the girls and women in their mighty struggles in reform movements. May the day soon come when the rights of franchise be placed in their hands as the rights of prayer. Then and only then will every distillery and saloon be swept from our midst.

Pale-Faced Women

You ladies, who have pale faces, sallow complexions, dark circles under eyes, drawn features and tired, worn-out expressions, you need a tonic.

The tonic you need is Cardui, the woman's tonic. It is the best tonic for women, because its ingredients are specifically adapted for women's needs. They act on the womanly organs and help to give needed strength and vitality to the worn-out womanly frame.

Cardui is a vegetable medicine. It contains no minerals, no iron, no potassium, no lime, no glycerin, no dangerous, or habit-forming drugs of any kind.

It is perfectly harmless and safe, for young and old to use.

KENTUCKY NEIGHBORS.

A young man named Starr, who lives at Naugatuck, attempted to board a freight train at Kenova last Saturday and lost several toes.

The appeal taken before the Circuit Court at Huntington in the case of the state against B. E. Dudding, who was convicted of the murder of the old man Chapman some time ago, before the criminal court, was passed upon by Judge Doolittle and the judgment of the lower court was affirmed. It is said that the case will be taken before the Supreme Court of Appeals for a further hearing.

Bert Nunley, an employee of the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company, at Coal Grove, O., fell from the Norfolk & Western Railway bridge across Ice creek early Sunday morning and was killed. He fell a distance of about ninety feet, and his back and both legs were broken. He had been employed by the Yellow Poplar Lumber Company during the past three or four years, was 27 years of age and unmarried.

William Sweet, aged forty years, a coal miner at Princess, Ky., is in Catlettsburg jail charged with criminal assault on his own 12-year-old daughter. Feeling is running strong against him and violence may be attempted. Sweet's wife is dead and he has two daughters married.

The alleged victim of the assault being the oldest left at home. She kept house for her father and looked after the smaller children. The child is in a serious condition.

One of the worst mishaps that has occurred on the C. & O. in that section in a long time, and yet result in no fatalities, happened at Wurtland, Greenup county, last Tuesday. East-bound freight train No. 432, Covington to Ashland, was coming along at a good rate of speed, when, without an instant's warning, the locomotive blew up. The front part of the engine was blown over in a cornfield, seventy-five yards distant, and the first eight cars of the train piled up on the remainder of the wrecked engine in a mass of debris. No one was seriously injured.

Followers of Rev. D. H. Reid, the deposed pastor of Emmanuel M. E. Church South, who are to be allied with him in the erection of the proposed Gospel Tabernacle, are no longer without a religious home. During the summer they will hold services in a tent which has been pitched at a point on Twentieth street just below the Holderby school building. This tent is now in place and the first services will be held there Sunday. The services in the tent, which will be used throughout the summer

If a building is not erected before summer ends, will be of great interest to the people of the city. Mr. Reid's sermons have quality of directness which makes them keenly interesting at all times, and this interest will doubtless be accentuated, as Mr. Reid has expressed his determination to "preach the Word as it is in the Book, without regard to or doctrine," and it is not likely that he will mince words in dealing with wrongdoers of any class.—Huntington Advertiser.

TO USE PERUNA.

MRS. J. G. DUKES.

Rev. J. G. Dukes, Pastor of the Unitarian Church of Pinetown, N. C., writes:

"My wife has been in a very bad state of health for several years, and nothing seemed to do her any good until she began to use Peruna one month ago. Since then the color has returned to her face, and she is gaining in flesh every day, and I believe she is a well woman to-day."

"My little boy, ten years old, was pale and had but little life. He began to use Peruna the day his mother began. To-day his face is rosy, and he is out in the yard running and jumping with the rest of the children."

Stomach Trouble Relieved.

Mrs. T. J. Ballard, Pryor Creek, Indian Territory, writes: "I am happy to tell you that I keep free from my old stomach trouble; feel no catarrhal symptoms at all. I am able to do my work, eat and drink what I want, and rejoice that I found a sure cure in your valuable medicines, which I failed to find in the best of home physicians."
